

Fruitman Kates LLP
2022 Personal Tax Organizer

The Personal Tax Organizer is intended to assist you in collecting the information required for us to prepare your personal income tax return. The guide is in no way exhaustive and if you are uncertain about any item, please include a note with your queries so that we may advise you.

Once you have 90% plus of your information, please start sharing it (don't send individual emails of single slips). Please send your information to us electronically in pdf format (note that jpeg and pictures from your phone are difficult to work with at our end). We will be charging a minimum scanning fee of $150 for all personal tax information that we receive in paper format. We recommend downloading Genius Scan, CamScanner, or Microsoft Office Lens to your phone and use one of these applications to scan your documents to us rather than taking pictures with your phone.

If you are worried about security when sending electronic information, please email Sarah Nichols: sarahn@fruitman.ca and she will set-up a secure portal for you to upload all your documents to.

New Changes/Reminders

1. Did you receive or repay COVID-19 benefits<sup>1</sup> during 2022? CRA will be issuing T4A slips, and Service Canada will be issuing T4E slips, to COVID-19 benefit recipients to report any benefit amounts received as taxable income, or any benefit amounts repaid as a deduction to net income. If you repaid benefit amounts before December 31, 2022, the repayments should be reflected on the 2022 slip received. If repaid after December 31, 2022, you will be taxed on the full amount shown on the 2022 slip, where any repayment will be reported on your 2023 slip and claimed as a deduction on your 2023 tax return.
2. Are you an employee that worked from home due to COVID-19? There are two options available in claiming home office expenses as employment expenses:
  - a. Temporary Flat Rate Method - If you worked more than 50% of the time from home for a period of at least four consecutive weeks in 2022 due to COVID-19, you can claim $2 for each day you worked from home during that period plus any additional days you worked at home in 2022 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The maximum you can claim using the temporary flat rate method in 2022 is $500 (250 working days) per individual.
  - b. Detailed Method - You are eligible to claim a deduction for home office expenses you paid for the period you worked from home, if you meet all of the following criteria:
    - i. You worked from home in 2022 due to the COVID-19 pandemic or your employer required you to work from home
    - ii. You worked more than 50% of the time from home for a period of at least four consecutive weeks in 2022
    - iii. Have a completed and signed Form T2200S or Form T2200 from your employer
    - iv. The expenses are used directly in your work during the period

How to determine the employment use of a work space - Whether you work at a common (shared) area such as a dining table, or a designated room such as a spare bedroom, there are several factors to consider when calculating your employment use of the work space (See Schedule D):

<sup>1</sup> Canada Recovery Benefit (CRB), Canada Recovery Caregiving Benefit (CRCB), Canada Recovery Sickness Benefit (CRSB), or Canada Worker Lockdown Benefit (CWLBB).

Fruitman Kates LLP
2022 Personal Tax Organizer

New Changes/Reminders (Cont.)

- i. Size of your work space relative to size of home (based on square footage)
  - ii. Types of work spaces - Common area vs. designated room
  - iii. Hours per week you use the space for work - Common area is based on employment use of the space based on hours used for work, whereas designated room is not affected by number of hours you use the space for work
3. Tax on Split Income “TOSI” rules: new rules came into effect in 2018 that limit the amount of dividends that can be paid to “specified individuals”. Dividends caught under the new TOSI rules are taxed at the top marginal rates. Shareholders can avoid the TOSI rules by meeting certain criteria for their shareholdings (see here for more detail: TOSI rules<sup>2</sup>).
4. Did you sell or have a deemed disposition your principal residence? As of 2016 all principal residence sales are required to be reported each year. See Schedule C for information.
5. CRA continues to increase their audit activity. From what we have recently encountered regarding employment expense audits, CRA has been requesting supporting documentation and detailed receipts for meals and entertainment, travel, supplies and vehicle expenses. Further, CRA is taking the position in their audit conclusions that a meal consumed by a commissioned employee shall not be included as an expense, unless the meal was consumed during a period required by their employment duties to be away for a period of not less than 12 hours from the municipality of the employer’s establishment. Your T2200 (Part B question 3) issued by your employer will state whether this rule pertains to your commissioned employment situation. Please keep this in mind when organizing your employment expenses.
6. The Climate Action Incentive credit is a refundable tax credit introduced in 2018, that is currently available in 2022 for residents of Ontario, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Alberta if they were 18 years of age or older, had a spouse or common-law partner, or was a parent who lived with their child. The base credit for 2022 starts at $488 for an individual in Ontario and increases by $244 for a spouse and $122 per child under 19 in the family. The credit is no longer included on the personal tax return, instead it is paid as a quarterly benefit (April 2023, July 2023, October 2023, and January 2024). To receive your quarterly benefit payment you have to file a 2022 tax return. The Climate Action Incentive Payment will come into effect in Newfoundland and Labrador, Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward Island as of July 1, 2023.
7. Ontario Staycation Tax Credit is a refundable tax credit where Ontario residents can claim 20% of their eligible 2022 accommodation expenses of up to $1,000 as an individual or $2,000 if you have a spouse, common-law partner or eligible children. Only one individual per family can claim the credit for the year. The tax credit applies to eligible leisurely stays in Ontario between January 1 and December 31, 2022 (including Airbnb rentals). The accommodation facility/host must be registered for GST/HST and their GST/HST number must appear on the detailed expense receipt issued to you required to claim the credit. The credit does not apply to business travel. To be eligible to claim it, you must be a resident of Ontario as of December 31, 2022 and file your 2022 tax return.
8. The Underused Housing Tax (UHT) is a 1% tax on the ownership of vacant or underused housing in Canada that took effect on January 1, 2022. The tax usually applies to non-resident, non-Canadian owners. However in some situations it also applies to Canadian owners. Please see our blog on the UHT here: <https://fruitman.ca/february-2023/>

9. For residents of Ontario and Nunavut, there is a new initiative to promote organ and tissue donation where on the tax return you are required to answer yes or no to whether you consent to share your contact information with the Organ and tissue donor registry. Refer to section 5 below on page 7. Note you are not consenting to organ and tissue donation when you authorize CRA to share your contact information with Ontario Health. Your authorization is valid only in the tax year that you file this tax return. Your information will only be collected under the Ontario Gift of Life Act.

Foreign property includes:

1. Shares of foreign corporations;
2. Interests in foreign trusts;
3. Real property (real-estate) outside Canada;
4. Foreign mutual funds;
5. Precious metals held outside Canada;
6. Funds on deposit outside of Canada i.e.. foreign bank accounts; and
7. Foreign bonds.

Foreign property does not include:

1. Personal use property, e.g. Florida Condo;
2. Foreign property held in RRSP, RRIF, TFSA, or Canadian mutual funds; and
3. Shares of foreign Affiliates (T1134).

Failure to file a T1135 or T1134 by the due date can result in substantial penalties ranging from $25 a day with a minimum penalty of $100, to a maximum of $2,500. In the case of gross negligence, the penalty can be as high as $1,000 a month to a maximum of $24,000. For T1135's after 24 months, the penalty is 5% of the value of the specified property.

Fruitman Kates LLP
2022 Personal Tax Organizer

T1135 filing requirements: CRA has changed the form for simplified reporting of assets with a cost of less than $250,000 CDN and more than $100,000 CDN (Part A). For individuals with more than $250,000 CDN in foreign assets, the 2022 form T1135 (Part B) requires taxpayers to disclose the following information for each property including:

- The name of each foreign bank account or investment must be listed;
- The country for the investment;
- The maximum cost in the year and the cost at the end of the year;
- The income or loss for each investment;
- The capital gain or loss on disposition of the investment

Taxpayers' normal reassessment period will be extended by an additional three years should they fail to report their foreign investments correctly or if they did not file on time. This would extend the statute of limitations to six years from the date of assessment.

A taxpayer who held specified foreign property with a Canadian registered securities dealer (as defined in subsection 248(1) of the ITA) or with a Canadian trust company (as determined under paragraph (b) of the definition of restricted financial institution stated in subsection 248(1) of the ITA) can report the aggregate amount of all such property in category 7, "Property held in an account with a Canadian registered securities dealer or a Canadian trust company."

The category 7 table should be completed as follows:

- all of the property held with a particular securities dealer or trust company should be aggregated on a country-by-country basis;
- you can provide aggregate totals per country for each account;
- the maximum fair market value during the year may be based on the maximum month-end fair market value per country for each account.

Although the fair market value is used for this category, the criteria to determine if a taxpayer held foreign property at any time in 2022 with a total value of more than $100,000 remains based on cost, not the fair market value, pursuant to section 233.3 of the ITA.

Please refer to Schedule F for the detail required.
