2023 Personal Tax Organizer

The Personal Tax Organizer is intended to assist you in collecting the information required for us to prepare your personal income tax return. The guide is in no way exhaustive and if you are uncertain about any item, please include a note with your queries so that we may advise you.

Once you have 90% plus of your information, please start sharing it (don't send individual emails of single slips). Please send your information to us electronically in pdf format (note that jpeg and pictures from your phone are difficult to work with at our end). We will be charging a minimum scanning fee of $150 for all personal tax information that we receive in paper format. We recommend downloading Genius Scan, CamScanner, or Microsoft Office Lens to your phone and use one of these applications to scan your documents to us rather than taking pictures with your phone.

If you are worried about security when sending electronic information, please email Elina Hernandez Batista elinab@fkllp.ca and she will set-up a secure portal for you to upload all your documents to.

New Changes/Reminders

1. Did you repay COVID-19 benefits¹ during 2023? CRA will be issuing T4A slips, and Service Canada will be issuing T4E slips, to report any COVID-19 benefit amounts repaid as a deduction to net income. If you repaid benefit amounts before December 31, 2023, the repayments should be reflected on the 2023 slip received.
2. Are you an employee that worked from home during 2023? Please note the two temporary methods for claiming deductions for home office expenses during the COVID-19 pandemic, being Form T2200S, "Declaration of Conditions of Employment for Working at Home Due to COVID-19," and the Temporary Flat Rate Method ($2 for each day worked from home due) that were available for the 2020, 2021 and 2022 tax years, do not apply for 2023, and as such claiming home office expenses incurred (which were not reimbursed) as an employment expense reverts to the conditions prior to COVID-19, being:
 - a. You worked more than 50% of the time from home for a period of at least four consecutive weeks.
 - b. The expenses were directly related to the employee's work.

You will need to get a completed Form T2200, Declaration of Conditions of Employment from your employer.

How to determine the employment use of a work space - Whether you work at a common (shared) area such as a dining table or using the family computer room, or a designated room such as a spare room, there are several factors to consider when calculating your employment use of the work space (See Schedule D):

- i. Size of your work space relative to size of home (based on square footage)
 - ii. Types of work spaces - Common area vs. designated room
 - iii. Hours per week you use the space for work - Common area is based on employment use of the space based on hours used for work, whereas designated room is not affected by number of hours you use the space for work
3. Did you sell or have a deemed disposition your principal residence? As of 2016 all principal residence sales are required to be reported each year. See Schedule C for information.

¹ Canada Recovery Benefit (CRB), Canada Recovery Caregiving Benefit (CRCB), Canada Recovery Sickness Benefit (CRSB), or Canada Worker Lockdown Benefit (CWLDB).

4. First home savings account (FHSA) is a new registered plan to help individuals save for their first home. Starting April 1, 2023, contributions to an FHSA are generally deductible and qualifying withdrawals made from an FHSA to purchase a qualifying home are tax free. If you contributed in 2023 you will receive a T4FHSA slip to include on your 2023 tax return.
5. Property flipping rules: Starting January 1, 2023, any gain from the disposition of a housing unit (including a rental property) located in Canada, or a right to acquire a housing unit located in Canada, that you owned or held for less than 365 consecutive days before its disposition is deemed to be business income and not a capital gain, unless the property was already considered inventory or the disposition occurred due to, or in anticipation of certain life events. Please see our blog on the new rules here: <https://fruitman.ca/november-2022/>
6. Tax on Split Income “TOSI” rules: new rules came into effect in 2018 that limit the amount of dividends that can be paid to “specified individuals”. Dividends caught under the new TOSI rules are taxed at the top marginal rates. Shareholders can avoid the TOSI rules by meeting certain criteria for their shareholdings (see here for more detail: TOSI rules²).
7. Ontario Staycation Tax Credit was only applicable to 2022 and was not extended to the 2023 tax year.
8. The Multigenerational Home Renovation Tax Credit (MHRTC) is a new refundable tax credit in 2023 intended for families wishing to create a secondary unit within an existing dwelling so that a senior or a disabled person can live close to a parent. This secondary unit must have a private entrance, kitchen, bathroom and sleeping area and must accommodate a relative over the age of 65 or living with a disability. This may be a grandparent, a parent, a child, a grandchild, a brother or a sister, an aunt or an uncle, or a niece or a nephew. The tax credit is 15% of the lesser of qualifying expenditures and $50,000, up to a maximum credit of $7,500 per qualifying renovation.
9. CRA continues to increase their audit activity. From what we have recently encountered regarding employment expense audits, CRA has been requesting supporting documentation and detailed receipts for meals and entertainment, travel, supplies, vehicle expenses as well as a log indicating the starting address, address of the destination and kms driven to get there and back. Please keep this in mind when organizing your employment expenses.
10. Starting in 2024, the climate action incentive payment (CAIP) credit is now referred to as the Canada Carbon Rebate. It is a refundable tax credit introduced in 2018, that is currently available in 2023 for residents of Ontario, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Alberta, Newfoundland and Labrador, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward Island if they were 18 years of age or older, had a spouse or common-law partner, or was a parent who lived with their child. The credit is no longer included on the personal tax return, instead it is paid as a quarterly benefit (April 2024, July 2024, October 2024, and January 2025). To receive your quarterly benefit payment, you have to file a 2023. The quarterly payment base amount for 2023 starts at $140 for an individual in Ontario and increases by $70 for a spouse and $35 per child under 19 in the family.
11. Effective July 2023, all taxpayers who claimed the Canada Workers Benefit (CWB) on their 2022 tax return have received the Advanced Canada Workers Benefit (ACWB). Taxpayers who received the ACWB in 2023 will receive a RC210 slip.

1. Shares of foreign corporations;
2. Interests in foreign trusts;
3. Real property (real-estate) outside Canada;
4. Foreign mutual funds;
5. Precious metals held outside Canada;
6. Funds on deposit outside of Canada i.e.. foreign bank accounts; and
7. Foreign bonds.

Foreign property does not include:

1. Personal use property, e.g. Florida Condo;
2. Foreign property held in RRSP, RRIF, TFSA, or Canadian mutual funds; and
3. Shares of foreign Affiliates (T1134).

Failure to file a T1135 or T1134 by the due date can result in substantial penalties ranging from $25 a day with a minimum penalty of $100, to a maximum of $2,500. In the case of gross negligence, the penalty can be as high as $1,000 a month to a maximum of $24,000. For T1135's after 24 months, the penalty is 5% of the value of the specified property.

Fruitman Kates LLP

2023 Personal Tax Organizer

T1135 filing requirements: CRA has changed the form for simplified reporting of assets with a cost of less than $250,000 CDN and more than $100,000 CDN (Part A). For individuals with more than $250,000 CDN in foreign assets, the 2023 form T1135 (Part B) requires taxpayers to disclose the following information for each property including:

- The name of each foreign bank account or investment must be listed;
- The country for the investment;
- The maximum cost in the year and the cost at the end of the year;
- The income or loss for each investment;
- The capital gain or loss on disposition of the investment

Taxpayers' normal reassessment period will be extended by an additional three years should they fail to report their foreign investments correctly or if they did not file on time. This would extend the statute of limitations to six years from the date of assessment.

A taxpayer who held specified foreign property with a Canadian registered securities dealer (as defined in subsection 248(1) of the ITA) or with a Canadian trust company (as determined under paragraph (b) of the definition of restricted financial institution stated in subsection 248(1) of the ITA) can report the aggregate amount of all such property in category 7, "Property held in an account with a Canadian registered securities dealer or a Canadian trust company."

The category 7 table should be completed as follows:

- all of the property held with a particular securities dealer or trust company should be aggregated on a country-by-country basis;
- you can provide aggregate totals per country for each account;
- the maximum fair market value during the year may be based on the maximum month-end fair market value per country for each account.

Although the fair market value is used for this category, the criteria to determine if a taxpayer held foreign property at any time in 2023 with a total value of more than $100,000 remains based on cost, not the fair market value, pursuant to section 233.3 of the ITA.

Please refer to Schedule F for the detail required.
